Futures Quest Leadership Training Program

Futures Quest provides leadership training to men who have joined a fraternity in the last year. Focused on identifying personal strengths, developing leadership and communication skills, and committing to fraternal ideas, past participants leave with a definitive plan for their future. The intensive, 3 day program takes place outdoors in central Indiana and offers the undergraduate a chance to develop invaluable leadership skills.

The Delta Chi Educational Foundation offers one scholarship per region.

The Requirements

- + Completed application post marked no later than November 30th.
- + A one page (or less) statement explaining why the candidate believes he will benefit from the training and how he will make a positive impact on his chapter and campus.
- + Application and additional information available online at:
www.dcef.com

Please inform all of your members about this great opportunity and forward the information and application to those members who are qualified and can benefit from this excellent leadership program.
